

19 March 1964

Mr. John H. McCone
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Langley, Virginia

STATINTL Dear Mr. McCone:

STATINTL On behalf of the Staff and Faculty, U. S. Army Intelligence School, I am pleased to express my appreciation for the highly effective presentation by [REDACTED] at Fort Monard, on 16 March 1964.

STATINTL [REDACTED] lecture was one of technical competency and professionalism and was enthusiastically received. His orientation concerning responsibilities, requirements and capabilities of technical attaches was a distinct contribution to our academic program for these career intelligence officers. Of particular interest was [REDACTED] explanation of the purpose of [REDACTED]

STATINTL

STATINTL Thank you for providing the services of [REDACTED] and please convey to him the appreciation of the Staff and Faculty.

STATINTL

Sincerely,

MATTHEW C. STEWART
Colonel, AIS
Assistant Commandant

*ARMY Declass/Release Instructions On File*

W44 53 10 55 AM '64